There will be another open bowling day, free for any students interested in bowling on Tuesday Oct 29. We will meet at the high school at 5:15 pm so if anyone needs a ride we can provide one. We will bowl at Sherman Bowling Center from 6 to 7 pm. Any students that are returning bowlers or those that are interested in learning more about joining the boys or girls varsity bowling team be sure to join us.

"Even though I didn't win every match the environment the coaches and other wrestlers created gave me confidence I needed to succeed on and off the mat. My only regret is not doing wrestling my first three years of High School" -2024 Graduate Trisha Beckman encourages all girls to try wrestling.

Congrats to the girls golf team for their 6th place finish at the Division 4 State Championship! Braylyn Bultema, Cadence Fox, Brynlee Kessler, and Addi Smith all finished between 20th and 30th place out of over 100 girls at the state championship! Braylyn capped off her senior year by shooting a team best 92 on day two. Cadence finished the weekend with the 5th best score for any Junior. Brynlee and Addi had the second and third best scores for sophomores. Marguerite O'Connell shot the second best score for all freshman! The future is bright for Montague Girls Golf. Congrats on a great season!

There will be a watch party TODAY at 5PM here in the high school CAT Lab for anyone that would like to watch the boys regional semi-final soccer game.
